

Lesson
24

The Day of Judgment

In lesson No.2 we have already learnt about الرحمن and الرحيم the two attributes of Allah. So now we will recite the next verse.

الدِّينِ

يَوْمِ

مَلِكِ

(of) Judgment

of the day

Master

- The day when the result of our test shall be announced in front of Allah, is called يوم الدين.
- Allah is the Master and the Lord of the Day of Resurrection. On that Day, no one shall be the Master and the Lord except Allah.
- The Day of Judgment: One day, this world shall come to an end. These high rise buildings, great mansions and mighty mountains shall all become dust.
- Allah shall give life to every human that ever existed, from Prophet Adam till the day of resurrection. That day would be equivalent to 50,000 years on earth.
- On that day, all great people, kings and other notables, VIPs. shall stand helpless in front of Allah.
- We shall be handed over the Records of our deeds on that day. Those having more good deeds in their record shall succeed and those having more bad deeds shall fail.
- The successful ones shall be presented their result (Record of deeds) in their right hands and shall be sent to the heaven where they shall live forever.
- The failures shall be given their result (Record of deeds) in their left hands and shall be sent to the Hell. Their faces shall be grieved and gloomy. They would wish to return to the world to do good deeds, but they shall not be given any chance

Link the Word with its correct meaning

Word	Meaning
مَلِكِ	Judgment
يَوْمِ	Master
الدِّينِ	Day