

BUILDING RAPPORT WITH STUDENTS PARENTS

---

Teacher Training Course series

<https://understandquran.com/teacher-training-course/>

OUTLINE

Building rapport with Students

- Activity
- Quiz

Building rapport with Parents

- Activity
- Quiz

BUILDING RAPPORT WITH PARENTS

1. Initiate open and regular communication
2. Show genuine interest and active listening
3. Respect cultural and individual differences
4. Seek their insights and involvement
5. Share positive feedback and accomplishments
6. Be approachable and responsive
7. Collaborate on strategies for support
8. Attend parent-teacher conferences and events
9. Maintain professionalism and confidentiality
10. Seek common goals and solutions

BUILDING RAPPORT WITH PARENTS

- 1. Initiate open and regular communication: Stay in touch with parents throughout the school year and update them regularly on their child's progress through various communication channels like email, phone calls, parent-teacher conferences, or digital platforms.
- 2. Show genuine interest and active listening: Listen attentively to parents' perspectives and concerns for their child, acknowledging their input and seeking to understand their viewpoints.
- 3. Respect cultural and individual differences: Respecting parents' unique backgrounds and traditions promotes inclusivity and understanding in the classroom. Valuing diversity fosters mutual respect.

BUILDING RAPPORT WITH PARENTS

- 4. Seek their insights and involvement: Involve parents in their child's education by requesting their input and involving them in decision-making processes.
- 5. Share positive feedback and accomplishments: Providing positive feedback and recognizing a child's accomplishments can strengthen the teacher-parent relationship.
- 6. Be approachable and responsive: Be available through various channels like office hours, email, and phone to address parent inquiries, concerns, and meeting requests promptly.

BUILDING RAPPORT WITH PARENTS

- 7. Collaborate on strategies for support: Collaborate with parents to support their child's education and well-being. Discuss reinforcing concepts at home and share resources for their involvement in learning.
- 8. Attend parent-teacher conferences and events: Participating in parent-teacher conferences, school events, and workshops shows your commitment to your child's education.
- 9. Maintain professionalism and confidentiality: Respect parents' privacy and confidentiality when sharing information about students. Follow professional ethics and guidelines.

BUILDING RAPPORT WITH PARENTS

10. Seek common goals and solutions: Collaborating with parents to set goals for their child's education is crucial. Together, challenges can be overcome, and growth ensured.

Remember, building rapport with parents takes time and effort. Consistency, empathy, and effective communication are key. By establishing a strong partnership with parents, teachers can create a supportive and enriching educational experience for their students.

PORTFOLIO ACTIVITIES

1. List the top five reasons for rapport breaking with the parents and write how to resolve them.
2. What are parents' top five 'complaints' against teachers, school management, and staff? Write what should be your response to such complaints.
3. Write a half to one page of speech addressing the parents.
4. Write a list of ten activities you would undertake during the academic year to ensure a healthy and positive rapport with the parents.

QUIZ LINK

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSf9KO-7Lg\_IDAfZNIr8yfQPzcy-RVX3FvXa2PVcT8HzoYbldg/viewform

BUILDING RAPPORT WITH STUDENTS

1. Establish a welcoming and inclusive classroom atmosphere
2. Practice active listening
3. Show genuine care and empathy
4. Be approachable and accessible
5. Use humor and positive reinforcement
6. Personalize learning experiences
7. Incorporate student interests and experiences
8. Collaborate and involve students in decision-making
9. Be fair and consistent
10. Demonstrate enthusiasm and passion

BUILDING RAPPORT WITH STUDENTS

- 1. Establish a welcoming and inclusive classroom atmosphere: Make students feel welcome by greeting them kindly, remembering their names, and showing interest in their experiences and lives.
- 2. Practice active listening: Listen actively to students. Maintain eye contact, nod, and respond empathetically. Acknowledge and validate their feelings and opinions, even if you disagree. Be respectful and open-minded.
- 3. Show genuine care and empathy: Understanding your student's needs, strengths, and challenges is crucial. Show compassion and offer support when needed. Acknowledge their circumstances to help them thrive.

BUILDING RAPPORT WITH STUDENTS

4. Be approachable and accessible: Be available for students to contact you before or after class via email or online platforms. Respond promptly and attentively to their inquiries, concerns, and feedback to foster open communication.

5. Use humor and positive reinforcement: Add humor and positivity in the classroom. Celebrate students' achievements to encourage positive behavior.

6. Personalize learning experiences: Recognize and appreciate your students' differences in background, interests, and learning styles. Use diverse teaching approaches to make learning more engaging and relevant for each individual.

BUILDING RAPPORT WITH STUDENTS

7. Incorporate student interests and experiences: Include student interests, hobbies, and experiences in class to foster a sense of value and belonging. Encourage them to share their knowledge and perspectives.

8. Collaborate and involve students in decision-making: Involve students in decision-making related to class activities, rules, and assignments to show that their opinions matter. Encourage them to share their views and feedback to make them feel valued.

9. Be fair and consistent: Treat students fairly and equally and avoid biases and favoritism. Acknowledge their strengths and contributions for a strong rapport.

BUILDING RAPPORT WITH STUDENTS

10. Demonstrate enthusiasm and passion: Be passionate about what you teach to motivate students and spark their interest in learning.

Build positive connections with your students by investing time and energy in establishing trust and demonstrating care, respect, and interest in their growth. This creates an engaging classroom atmosphere that promotes effective teaching and learning.

PORTFOLIO ACTIVITIES

1. List the top five reasons for rapport breaking with the students and write how to resolve them.
2. What are students' top five 'complaints' against teachers, school management, and staff? Write what should be your response to such complaints.
3. Write a half to one-page speech addressing the students to build a trusting relationship.
4. Write a list of ten activities you would undertake during the academic year to ensure a healthy and positive rapport with the students.

QUIZ LINK

<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLScvXzHljoJwS SHnlqH-F1Q7Y25pT8xByX 85KgdKz4trXKPA/viewform>