Rule of faith &
deeds!

- Abu Huraira reported Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) as saying: Verily Allah does not look at your faces and your wealth but He looks at your heart and your deeds. (Muslim: 2564)

- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ: All humans and races are equal in the sight of Allah. His law is just and same for all.

- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ: All humans and races are equal in the sight of Allah. His law is just and same for all.
- مَنْ آمَنَ ... وَعَمِلَ: Whoever fulfils two conditions, i.e., faith and good actions, will succeed. Most important is to note that the faith and good actions are those that are defined by the Qur'an and Hadith (or by earlier prophets for people in their times).

- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ: All humans and races are equal in the sight of Allah. His law is just and same for all.

- Some people mischievously translate this verse by adding “and” after Sabeans. The meanings in that case become: Indeed those who believed, and the Jews, and the Christians, and Sabeans, and whoever believes in Allah and the last day... In other words, all religions are equal. However, the ayah does not have “and.” Therefore, the message is that whether they are Muslims, Jews, Christians, or Sabeans, the success is only for those have correct faith and do the right actions.

- فَلَهُمْ أَجْرُهُمْ: Allah has already given us everything in this life. Our obedience to him does not equal even a fraction of just one blessing such as our eyes or ears. But He is so Kind and Merciful that He promises us rewards for doing good.

- When Allah gives the reward, you can imagine how great it will be; especially compared to this world which is not worth even the wing of a mosquito in the sight of Allah.
