Introduction

According to Abdullah bin Abbas, may Allah be pleased with him, this Surah is the last complete Surah of the Qur'an that was revealed to the Prophet ﷺ, [Muslim, Nasai]. After this Surah, some verses of other Surahs were revealed.

The enemies of Islam were defeated in Arabia and people were accepting Islam in groups because there was no one to scare them or confuse them by telling false things about Islam. They got the freedom to accept it.

Message from:

➤ سَبِّحْ means say Subhanallah. It means that Allah is free from any defect, deficiency, or imperfection. He does not need anybody's help. He is not weak and He is not under pressure of anyone. He has no son or father. He is alone in His entity, His attributes, His rights and His powers. Refer to lesson No. 7 for the message of Tasbeeh.

Message from:

➤ فَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ: How can you praise someone against whom you have a complaint, however small it may be? It is for this reason that we often seen the words Alhamdulillah mentioned after Subhanallah.

Message from:

- O Allah! Whatever defect was there in our good deeds, please forgive us for that.
- Our Tasbeeh and Hamd are defective. For that also, we should ask His forgiveness. Whenever we get the opportunity to perform a good deed, we should immediately do Tasbeeh, Hamd and ask for forgiveness.

Message from:

- This is a very big sign of relief and good news for sinners like us. We should never lose hope in the Mercy of Allah. Repent sincerely, i.e., accept that you sinned, feel sorry, and have a firm intention of never repeating the sin. Always have firm belief that Allah will accept your repentance.

Message from:

- Example: If I am very hungry and if someone tells me that he feeds hundreds of people, won't I immediately ask him for food. Likewise, in this verse, Allah talks about his immense forgiveness. So one must immediately use the opportunity and ask Allah for forgiveness. Similarly, whenever Allah's name or his act is mentioned, we can use that to ask Allah in a way that benefits us.
