Background of revelation

- When the polytheists of Makkah saw that more and more people were leaving their religion and revert to Islam, they came up with an offer of compromise. They told the Prophet ﷺ that they will worship Allah alone for one year but in the following year, the Prophet ﷺ has to worship their gods too along with Allah. In response, Allah revealed this Surah.

Virtues of this Sura

- The Prophet ﷺ used to recite this Surah and Surah Al-Ikhlaas in the Sunnah prayers of Fajr and Maghrib [Musnad Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Nasai, and Ibn Majah].

Virtues of this Sura

- The Prophet ﷺ used to recite this Surah and Surah Al-Ikhlaas in the Sunnah prayers of Fajr and Maghrib [Musnad Ahmad, Tirmidhi, Nasai, and Ibn Majah].
- The Prophet ﷺ advised some of his companions to recite it before sleep: Recite Surah Al-Kafiroon for it is a clearance from shirk (associating partners with Allah).” [Abu Dawood].

Q. Reciting Surah Al-Kafiroon is a clearance from

A. bad dreams

B. bad thoughts

C. bad habits

D. shirk

- Kafir is the one who receives the message of Islam, understands it, and then rejects it. The general address for Muslims and non-Muslims in the Qur'an is يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ (O Mankind!).
- Here, Allah is very angry at those who came the Prophet ﷺ to invite him to do shirk. They had clearly rejected Islam and that's why they are called Kafirs.

Message from:

قُلْ	يَا أَيُّهَا	الْكُفْرُونَ ^{لَا} 1
Say,	"O	disbelievers!

- The word Kafir itself is not degrading. Allah has asked Muslims to do Kufr with Taghoot (Shaitan). In that sense, every Muslim has to be a Kafir of Taghoot.

- What was the real problem with the disbelievers? They rejected the truth even after recognizing it because of their desires, ego, wealth, status, and traditions.

Create awareness among people regarding the dangerous consequences of following one's ego and traditions.

O Allah! Let me not reject the truth because of my ego, desires, or status.

Plan to realize the greatness of Allah and to train oneself to follow the truth.

How many times did I reject the truth or didn't accept it instantly?

Ibadah has three meanings:

- (1) worship;
- (2) obedience; and
- (3) slavery.

There is no compromise in any of these three. All these are for Allah alone.

- Today, some non-Muslims are trying to defame Islam. In this environment, you have to follow Islam without any inferiority complex. You have to be firm in your belief and thank Allah for Islam and keep spreading the true message of Islam in the best way because many people do not know the truth.

Message from:

وَلَا أَنَا	عَابِدٌ	مَا	عَبَدْتُمْ	4
[And] Nor (will) I	(be) a worshipper	(of) what	you worshipped.

This appears to be a repetition but it is not. There are different messages in the two verses.

- I don't worship your idols now (لَا أَعْبُدُ) and I will not worship them in future (وَلَا أَنَا عَابِدٌ).

- There is no compromise in the matter of faith. It is not because of arrogance but because we follow the truth and we are afraid of Allah's wrath.

- This again appears to be a repetition but it is in a different context. The message here is: Because of your insistence on shirk, it is not expected that you will worship Allah alone.

لَكُمْ	دِينُكُمْ	وَلِيَّ	دِينِ ٦ ^ع
To you (be)	your religion	and to me	my religion.”

- This does not mean that all religions are equal or same. This also does not mean that we should stop propagating the message of Islam. Did Prophet Muhammad ﷺ stop propagating Islam after this revelation? Never! This statement is in response to their offer of compromise.

Message from:

لَكُمْ	دِينُكُمْ	وَلِيَّ	دِينِ ^ع 6
To you (be)	your religion	and to me	my religion.”

- The disbelievers came to the Prophet as a team. We should also help each other and work in an organized way to present Islam to the people in the best way so that they are saved from hellfire and get the best of this world and the hereafter.

In this Sura, we learnt that we should worship
Allah alone and should never make any compromise when it comes to Deen.

We do this not because of arrogance but because of our fear of Allah's punishment.
