3rd Homework - Study the card

“Word card/sheet or pocketbook is an excellent technique for memorizing vocabulary.”

An acknowledged expert in languages, Graham E. Fuller has studied sixteen of them including French, German, Persian, Japanese, Turkish, Chinese, Arabic, Greek, Russian, and even Esperanto. As both a language student and teacher, he's well aware of the problems that beginners face.

During his career with the Foreign Service, Graham and his family spent more than seventeen years overseas—in Europe, the Middle East, and the Far East. So he's especially sensitive to the practical aspects of using a foreign language in everyday life.

Now a senior policy analyst with one of this country's leading think-tanks, Graham divides his time between California and Washington D.C. In his spare time he likes to cook, build furniture—and learn languages.

How To Learn a Foreign Language

by Graham E. Fuller

“Useful and Entertaining”
The New York Times

It's astonishing that no one has ever thought of a book like this before—designed to prepare students for beginning the study of any language. This book is indispensable to anyone learning a first foreign language.

Dr. L. Michael Bell
Professor of English and Foreign Languages
University of Colorado
