Mus'ab (RA) in Madinah

- Following the Hajj, the Prophet ﷺ entrusted Mus'ab bin Umair (RA) with the task of teaching Islam to the people of Madinah who had embraced Islam.
- Mus'ab (RA) resided at the house of Asad bin Zurarah (RA) in Madinah, and together, they began spreading the teachings of Islam.
- As a direct result of the efforts and preaching of these two, a significant number of people in Madinah embraced Islam in a very short period.

Permission of Hijrah (for Sahabah) (1)

- It became tough for Muslims to stay in Makkah due to the persecution from the disbelievers of Makkah.
- As Islam started spreading in Madinah after the 2nd pledge of allegiance, the Prophet ﷺ permitted Muslims to migrate to Madinah, and believers began to move there gradually.

Permission of Hijrah (for Sahabah) (2)

- Sahabah made significant sacrifices for Hijrah.
- Some had to leave behind their homes, wealth, and possessions, while others had to give up their trades, businesses, and even their families, like parents, siblings, wives, and children.
- But they were content and happy because they knew that in Madinah, they could worship the one God freely.
